

PASSAGE FOR THE SERVICE OF REMEMBRANCE

STRENUUE

Wisdom of Solomon : Chapter 3, verses 1 to 9.

The souls of the righteous are in the hand of God, and no torment shall touch them. In the eyes of the foolish they seemed to have died; their departure was accounted to be their hurt, and their going from us to be utter destruction. But they are in peace.

For even if in the sight of men they be punished, their hope is full of immortality; and having borne a little chastening, they shall receive great good. Because God made trial of them and found them worthy of himself: as gold in the furnace hath he tried them, and accepted them. And in the time of their visitation they shall shine forth. They shall judge nations, and have dominion over peoples; and the Lord shall reign over them for evermore.

They that trust on him shall understand the truth, and the faithful shall abide with him in love, because grace and mercy are to his chosen.

Sons of this place let this of you be said that you who live are worthy of your dead

LET US PRAY

We give thee humble and hearty thanks, O merciful God, for the lives and examples of thy servants; for their high ideals and aspirations in college days; for their ready response to the call of their country; for their cheerfulness and courage in the midst of suffering and danger; for their steadfastness and self-sacrifice in the hour of death. Grant unto them, O Lord, joy and peace and greater opportunity of service in the new life to which thou hast called them.

And as we bless thy holy Name, for those thy servants departed this life in thy faith and love, so we beseech thee to give to us, who remain, grace to follow their good example, and to carry on the work which they began. Grant, O Lord, we pray thee, that the offering of their lives may not have been made in vain; that we and all thy people may hear the call to nobler living which sounds in our ears from the graves of those who have died that we might live; that we may dedicate our lives anew to the work of bringing in thy Kingdom upon earth: that so, out of these years of sin and misery and loss, there may arise a better world.

Almighty God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name, thou wilt grant their requests; fulfill now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

BENEDICTION

From the rising of the sun unto the going down of the same, of thy Goodness give us, with thy Love inspire us, by thy Spirit guide us, by thy Power protect us, and in thy Mercy receive us, now and always. Amen
